

Move On

Mitch James

It's never goodbye
Tell me we'll pick it up again
I'm not gonna lie
We can seem to just be friends
As years go by
All these other girls come creeping in
Still I can't erase you from my mind

Don't wanna let go
Though I lost all the feeling
Stone cold, but I won't stop believing
Give me a reason not to pick up the pieces
I can move on
Should I move on?

I'm looking for signs
Wondering if you feel the same
Maybe it's time
Maybe we'll stop playing games
Forget that I lied
There's a weight up on my shoulders
When you cry
Why do I need you in my life?
Oh girl, I hate goodbyes

Don't wanna let go
Though I lost all the feeling
Stone cold, but I won't stop believing
Give me a reason not to pick up the pieces
I can move on

Should I move on?

Goodbyes are for the weak
And you threw me in the deep end
Why did you leave me all alone?
I'm still awake but dreaming
My troubles slowly sinking
The water's carrying me home

Don't wanna let go
Though I lost all the feeling
Stone cold, but I won't stop believing
Give me a reason not to pick up the pieces
I can move on
Should I move on?

Don't wanna let go
Though I lost all the feeling
Stone cold, but I won't stop believing
Give me a reason not to pick up the pieces
I can move on
Should I move on?

It's never goodbye
Tell me we'll pick it up again
I'm not gonna lie

We can seem to just be friends
As years go by
All these other girls come creeping in
Still I can't erase you from my mind
