

One More

Mitch James

It was just another Friday night
Didn't know you'd change it all
You left behind your phone, you left it
Another couple's months had passed
To fate would have us here
It couldn't be more clear
I meant that

Then four years had passed
Before the accident
And I felt your crash
And then the phone starts ringing

I don't know all the things we love can go away
But you are so strong, I'm grateful I could be with you that day
It takes so long for our broken hearts to start the ache
Today

We'd been screaming for hours
We'd been lost in ourselves
We'd been through the ups and downs
And downs and ups and downs
We'd been fighting along
Like we'd been in the war
And I still do not know how
We got a room for one more

It was just another date night
We've gone and tried our best
We're having no success
I hate that
I'm seeing both your eyes dwell up
You're crying on my chest
Another negative test
No chance of IVF

Then two years had passed
Before we got the news
That I'll be a dad
You'll be a mama too

And I now know all the things in life we're meant to be
And we're so strong, we're gonna be a little family
We waited so long, we never thought we'd live to see that day
It's today

We'd been screaming for hours
We'd been lost in ourselves
We'd been through the ups and downs
And downs and ups and downs
We'd been fighting along
Like we'd been in the war
And I still do not know how
We got a room for one more

Was just another Sunday night, 11th of July
You came into our lives, remember

There's panic at the hospital, your mom's in so much pain
They're rolling her away, I'm restless

And two hours pass
it could be do or die
And two angels survive and then I start to cry

'Cause I now know I will live for every single day
And we're so proud, we look at you in on our Merry May
We waited so long, we never thought we'd live to see that day
It's today

We'd been screaming for hours
We'd been lost in ourselves
We'd been through the ups and downs
And downs and ups and downs
We'd been fighting along
Like we'd been in the war
And now we both know why
We had a room for one more
