

stone cold sober

Mitch James

Talking about last night
I got lucky like a five leaf clover
I would go a thousand miles
Do anything to win you over

And now the tide is on the rise
It's gonna pull you under
When you are not around
You got me feeling stone cold sober
You got me feeling stone cold sober
You got me feeling stone cold sober

I feel like in a past life
You and I had something golden
I pinch myself every night
I can't believe that you have chosen me

To be the man that's by your side
And every night I get to hold you
When you are not around
You got me feeling stone cold sober
You got me feeling stone cold sober
You got me feeling stone cold sober
