

I Can't Love You Any More

Mitchell Tenpenny

I can crank any truck if you give me a couple of hours
I can crush 12 Millers and still hit the middle of a bullseye
I can catch any fish out of any ole hole of water
Nothing to it, I can do it, if it's anything under this blue sky

But I can't love you any more
I can't love you any more
I can't love you any more than I do right now
Oh, I can't love you any more
I can't love you any more
I can't love you any more than I do right now

Right now, you're painting gold on your toes right out of the shower
Time killing, just milking every minute of your Sunday
Taking pulls from a bottle of Moscato on the counter
I don't know a lot about a lot, but I do know one thing

That I can't love you any more
I can't love you any more
I can't love you any more than I do right now
Oh, I can't love you any more
I can't love you any more
I can't love you any more than I do right now
Oh, right now, girl

I can't kiss you enough, can't hold you enough
Can't thank the good Lord that I know you, enough
I always do at the end of the day
Even when I always say

I can't love you any more
I can't love you any more
I can't love you any more than I do right now
No, I can't love you any more
I can't love you any more
I can't love you any more than I do right now

Girl, I can't, I can't love you any more
Than I do right now
