

I Won't

Mitchell Tenpenny

Sweet Grace got a hold of me
The finest girl in town
She wrapped my heart in tumbleweeds
And watches me roll around on her holy ground
Yeah

A piece of mind's a silly thing
It changes like the wind
Pour me an old cliché
'Cause she's living in my head with free rent

Yeah, I really wanna call right now, but I won't
'Cause all you have to do is pick up the phone
Tell me that you miss my kind of cologne
Laying without me in your bed alone
Yeah, I really wanna call right now, but I won't
I really wanna call right now, but I won't

Sweet Grace let go of me
Because she knows I won't go far
Knows I won't go far
She's got me stuck in the middle of wrapped around her finger and Getting back my heart

Yeah, I really wanna call right now, but I won't
'Cause all you have to do is pick up the phone
Tell me that you miss my kind of cologne
Laying without me in your bed alone
Yeah, I really wanna call right now, but I won't
I really wanna call right now, but I won't

I wish you knew how bad it feels when my heart breaks
'Cause girl, it hurts like hell
It ain't your fault, I guess I have to learn the hard way
So I blame myself

That I really wanna call right now, but I won't
I really wanna call
'Cause all you have to do is pick up the phone
All you have to do
Tell me that you miss my kind of cologne
You miss my cologne
Laying without me in your bed alone

Yeah, I really wanna call right now, but I won't
I really wanna call right now, but I won't
'Cause all you have to do is pick up the phone
I really wanna call right now, but I won't
