

Love & Rock n' roll

Mitchell Tenpenny

Oh yeah

Rolling down the window
Watching as her hair runs wild and free
So much to live for
In the passenger seat
Headed for a dirt road
Deep in the country of Tennessee
Crank up the radio
Let Tom Petty sing

Well, now she's swaying
There's a rhythm in her bones
Man she's got me thinking
I'll never get tired of loving rock n' roll
I'll never get tired of loving rock n' roll
Whao...

Baby's got those blue eyes
Built by the hands of Amazing Grace
Dancing on a fine line
Of every radio wave

Well, now she's swaying
There's a rhythm in her bones
Man she's got me thinking
I'll never get tired of loving rock n' roll
I'll never get tired of loving rock n' roll
I'll never get tired of loving rock n' roll
I'll never get tired of loving rock n' roll
Oh yeah

Yehoo...

Well, now she's swaying
There's a rhythm in her bones, yeah
Oh man she's got me thinking
I'll never get tired of loving rock n' roll
I'll never get tired of loving rock n' roll
I'll never get tired
I'll never get tired
I'll never get tired, no
I'll never get tired of loving rock n' roll
