Not Today

Mitchell Tenpenny

Everybody's got a different way, different way
To numb the hurt and try to heal the pain, kill the pain
Their own path to peace of mind, I got mine
But timelines are subject to change

I'ma let it rain, I'ma let it burn
I'ma sit my ass in the back of church
I'ma let it go but I'ma feel it first
Oh, for what it's worth

I'll find a way to forget you
With a bottle, a bible, or a mistake
I know I'm gonna move on, I know I'll be ok
I'll find a way to forget you
I'm gonna give my broken heart a break
Baby, gimme some time
I'll get you off of my mind
Just not today

I'ma call the boys, hit the town, burn it down
Find a heart in the downtown lost and found
Send a barstool drunk prayer upstairs
To get me over you, I'll get there

I'll find a way to forget you
With a bottle, a bible, or a mistake
I know I'm gonna move on, I know I'll be ok
I'll find a way to forget you
I'm gonna give my broken heart a break
Baby, gimme some time
I'll get you off of my mind
Just not today

I'ma let it rain, I'ma let it burn
I'ma sit my ass in the back of church
I'ma let it go but I'ma feel it first
Oh, for what it's worth

I'll find a way to forget you
With a bottle, a bible, or a mistake
I know I'm gonna move on, I know I'll be ok
I'll find a way to forget you
I'm gonna give my broken heart a break
Baby, gimme some time
I'll get you off of my mind
Just not today
Not today, not today, just not today
Not today, not today, just not today
Not today, not today, just not today
Not today, not today, just not today
Not today, not today, just not today
Not today, not today, just not today
