

Smoke

Mitchell Tenpenny

It started out like it ended, too quick in the blink of an eye
Met you in a friend's apartment at a party, all in at first sight

You smiled and pulled me outside
We shared your last cigarette, lit up the next hundred nights
Who knew that's all we would get?

We turned that smoke into fire, all summer we let it burn
Holding each other like we're the last two people on earth
We started at 100, baby, had nowhere higher to go
We turned that smoke into fire, then turned that fire to smoke

I was sleeping at your place, or you were waking up in my bed
Chasing love in the fast lane is a good way to wind up in a wreck

I don't know where we went wrong, not sure if we even did
We went from good thing to gone, September came, there we went

We turned that smoke into fire, all summer we let it burn
Holding each other like we're the last two people on earth
We started at 100, baby, had nowhere higher to go
We turned that smoke into fire, then turned that fire to smoke

I guess we burned too bright, guess we held on too tight
You can only get so high before you come crashing down

We turned that smoke into fire, all summer we let it burn
Holding each other like we're the last two people on earth
We started at 100, baby, had nowhere higher to go
We turned that smoke into fire, then turned that fire to smoke

Oh-oh-oh, oh-oh-oh
Oh-oh
Oh-oh-oh
Oh, that fire, that fire to smoke
Oh-oh-oh, oh-oh-oh
We turned that fire to smoke
Oh-oh-oh-oh
