

Another Day

MitiS

You and I are the story of my life
In a war that we can't help but fight
Cause we're caught between the darkness and the light

You're the moon and I'm waves on the shore
You pull me in 'til you push me once more
Then you take my hand and yet again we cross the great divide

Pull me under before we break
My borrowed heart's about to suffocate
We're running in a circle
But I still want the chase
Cause our love will live to die another day
Die another day
Die another day
Another day

Pull me under before we break
My borrowed heart's about to suffocate
We're running in a circle
But I still want the chase
Cause our love will live to die another day
Die another day
Cause our love will live to die another day
