

Last night I was high, yeah
A little out of my mind, yeah
But I saw the fire, yeah
And it got me high

There's not always a fallout
But I'm in the long haul now
And you got me calling out a name that I don't know yet

Let's wait
We're fighting with fate
And we can't fight with fate, babe
Just wait
We're leaving this place
Gotta get out of this mess

I'll be your reason why
We'll get in the car for miles and drive
I'll hold the wheel, that's fine
Even when you're wrong and I'm right
You'll be the answer tonight
We'll be the ones without a fallout
Cause you're walking away with me

(Yeah)
A little out of my mind, yeah
When I saw the fire
And it got me high

There's not always a fallout
But I'm in the long haul now
You got me calling out a name
That I don't know yet

Let's wait
We're fighting with fate
And we can't fight with fate, babe
Just wait
We're leaving this place
Gotta get out of this mess

I'll be your reason why
We'll get in the car for miles and drive
I'll hold the wheel, that's fine
Even when you're wrong and I'm right
You'll be the answer tonight
We'll be the ones without a fallout
Cause you're walking away with me
(Yeah)
(Walking away with me)
