

Thousand words
I can hear but I can't be
Caught in a dream
I can feel but I can't leave
I'm a walking disaster
A broken machine
And I know that none of it matters
As long as
I'm inside this dream with you

I know it's gone
But my mind never says no
Try to be strong
But my heart never let's go
I'm a walking disaster
A broken machine
And I know that none of it matters
As long as I'm inside this dream with you

I know it's gone
But my mind never says no
Try to be strong
But my heart never let's go
I'm a walking disaster
A broken machine
And I know that none of it matters
As long as I'm inside this dream with you

I know it's gone
But my mind never says no
Try to be strong
But my heart never let's go
I'm a walking disaster
A broken machine
And I know that none of it matters
As long as I'm inside this dream with you...
