

Running Away

MitiS

(Sometimes I feel I'm falling)
(Slowly break through)
(Sometimes I feel I'm falling)

I'm living a lie again
I'm losing what I have planned
Without knowing what
I'm feeling inside
There's no telling how it ends
I'm hoping to come undone
Feel myself healing strong
Remembering those days
I slipped away
But you helped me get up

In the times I feel I'm falling
I begin to slowly break though
And the words I simply fall too
Running away

(Running away)
(Running away)

I'm feeling alive again
I'm feeling like we've began
To move past those days
Losing the haze
Leaving the world behind
I'm lifting my spirit up
Pushing back all the loss
I'm feeling your grace
Move past my face
Will you help me get up

In the times I feel I'm falling
I begin to slowly break though
And the words I simply fall too
Running away

(Running away)
(Running away)

Remembering those days
I slipped away

(Break through)
