

Cats

Mitski

I won't leave you
'Cause I still love you
So it's up to you
If you choose to go

In the meantime, sleeping by my side
Our two cats making sure I'll be alright

You say it's so hard
But it feels simple to me
It feels so simple to me

So I've been trying
To stop trying to be
Like someone you'd still like
Maybe if I could
You already would

'Cause I still love you
So I won't leave you
Guess it's up to you
If you choose to go

In the meantime, rescue's at my side
Our two cats both asleep by me tonight

Maybe tomorrow night
The cats will be nowhere in sight
But I'll be glad to know
They're out following their hearts' delight
