

If I Leave

Mitski

If I leave
Somebody else will love you
But nobody else could forgive me
Quite as often as you

No one on this street knows
No one in this mall knows
No one in this bar knows

And none of my friends know
Surely none of my colleagues
Nor do my family

If I leave
Somebody else will find you
But nobody else could see me
Quite as clearly as you
You, you

Only you know
I've let only you know

How I ride through a tunnel and it's dark the whole way
I ride through a tunnel, it's been dark the whole way
I ride through a tunnel, it's still dark the whole way

I couldn't lose you
How could I lose you?
I couldn't lose you

For if I lost it
Somebody else will cheer you
But who else could love me
Quite as kindly as you?

Who could love me
Quite as kindly as you?
You
