

Shame

Miya Folick

Blind on one eye
My hero my dear
When shame fell upon me
Didn't know I could scream

Oh God, I'm so restless
God, I'm so scared to move
My body is yours
My body is yours

If God made me lonely
Why am I scared to die?
He says "Put on my t-shirt, you're just too young to try"

Oh God, I'm so restless
God, I'm so scared to move
My body is yours
My body is yours
My body is yours

Time after time
He comes and he knows
When he puts on my t-shirt
Places I couldn't go

My baby is slowly saying goodbye
Never called you nothing my lover
We were too scared to try

If God made me lonely
Why am I scared to die?
He says "Put on my t-shirt, you're just too young to try"

Oh God, I'm so restless
God, I'm so scared to move
My body is yours
My body is yours

Time after time
He comes and he knows
When he puts on my t-shirt
Places I couldn't go

My baby is slowly saying goodbye
Never called you nothing my lover
We were too scared to try

What our fathers have done
What our brothers become
What our fathers have done
What our brothers become

My body is yours
It's what our brothers become
What our fathers have done
What our brothers become

What our fathers have done

What our fathers have done
