

Grief

MJ Lenderman

There's a part of me
I give up for you
A part of me I kill

There's a part of you
I wanna hold in my hands
A part of you I want again

There's a darkness
I lay beside and he holds my hand
And I think about your pale blue eyes
And I remember when
You showed me that song
That song
Linger on Linger on
