

Space

MJ Lenderman

There will be space
Alone or not
There will be space
Together or not
The dark refuses to hide anymore
So I'll be going
Do you know how much I love you
Do you know how much I love you
But this will stay
Do you really think it goes away

Last night
I got good on the inside
Alone is all I need
Alone is all I need
(Alone)
This don't go away
Did I really think it goes away
Now I really think it goes away
(Ooooh)
Never really goes away
(Ooooh)

There will be space
Alone or not
There will be space
Together or not
