

Unmake Me

MJ Lenderman

I'm turning white in your white sheets
I sweat my forehead clean
I set my cheek on your cold floor
I open holed up drawers

Steady myself on the door
Steady myself on the door

Reflective candy wrappers on the street
I turn the blinds ajar
I show you my New York tee
But in here if someone sees me
I'm here in someone's house
