

I Know How You Get

Mk.gee

I would drive up and down the 405
Just to hold your hand at night
I feel your heart burn in mine
Mine might be in yours in time

I know how you get sometimes
Getting caught up in the wrong and right
I think you know that the feeling's strong
'Cause I'm talkin' 'bout you all fucking day long

And it's you
You are the one to hold
All I can do
Is wish you didn't play my mind
I know how you get sometimes
Getting caught up in the wrong and right
But it's you (Oh, no)

I could give up all of my precious time
If maybe you could give me a try
I know you sent me 20 signals to go
But you could've left many hours ago

Get crazy when you're walking by
But you never look and turn your eyes
And I hear what your funny friends say
Shouldn't be giving me the light of day

Still it's you
You are the one to hold
All I can do
Is wish for things to go my way
I know how you get sometimes
Getting caught up in the wrong and right
But it's you
