

Isn't It So Convenient

Mk.gee

Ms. Nike
Where did your head go?
Can you tell me
Where you think I came from?
I'm not too different, right?
Swear I'm made of stone too
Why would I leave it all?
It's so convenient here with you

Don't feel like the one for you
Don't feel like the one at all
What's the catch, what you want from me?
Just convenience after all

(After all)
(After all)
(After all)

Nike, where did your head go?
Do you love me, or just hate being alone?
I might too
I might too
I might (Yeah)

Don't feel like the one for you
Don't feel like the one at all
What's the catch, what you want from me?
Just convenience after all
What you mean you believe in me?
Never saw you at my show
All this youth is just wasted away
You're just here 'cause we live kinda close

(After all)
(After all)
