

Little Bit More

Mk.gee

Haven't decided
Everything you wanted
Your life, it's yours
Come on, take what you want
Baby, take what you want

When the shadow has got me
Yeah, you found a way to bring me home
You opened the door
Just a little bit more (Ah-ha)

Haven't decided
Have you decided there's no luck of the draw?
Baby, take what you want (Ah)
Come on, take what you want

I dream of nothing
I dream of nothing like I used to before
Since you opened the door (Yeah)
Baby, open the door

Come on, little luck
Come on, lightning
Here, you start me up like it's nothing
City's on fire, no better timing (Ooh)

So have you realized it?
Have you decided there's no luck of the draw?
