

New Low

Mk.gee

Yeah, every now and every then
You hit a new low

Oh, you got a new bit?
That's a bad fit, just say no more
Who's been pulling the strings
Up and down your back? Oh-oh
Who's been pulling the strings
Up and down your back? Oh-oh-oh

But every now and every then
You get a little lost

It's not the pretense or the difference
That really throws me off
There's gotta be somebody you wanna be so bad (Mhm)
There's gotta be somebody you wanna be so bad

But every now and every then
We get a little low (Woah)
You get comfortable, copy all you know
Then you take off

I see you up and down like that, mhm
Like you got a new face every time I'm back, oh-ho-oh
