

Over Here

Mk.gee

'Cause you're there, I'll be over here
Don't know how to call you, so I disappear
I probably can't give you what you want
I'm just too withdrawn to have the confidence

You know that my heart beats strong, don't forget it
Watching it close to come, don't sweat it
I know if I take that chance, I'll regret it
Anything than this

'Cause you're there, I'll be over here
Don't know how to call you, so I disappear
I feel myself dive into you
I know that something's gotta give soon

My heart beats strong, don't forget it
Watching it close to come, sweatin'
I know if I take that chance, I'll regret it (Yeah)
Anything than this

Let me tell you now
Let me tell you now
Let me tell you now
