Last time
I fucked on my past life
I turned left and not right
And you just blamed it on my star sign

How come
You're crooked when you smile like
And if things just aligned right?
But you can't be lyin', if it feels right, feels right

Don't play the card
Come on baby
You can play me in the meantime
It's not that hard
Just want you into my life, my life
It's not always 'bout the right time (Find my time)
Might never be the right time (Mmm)

What's wrong?
Am I not the right month?
Why somebody gotta tell you who to love?
You can't remember what you're made of (Ah)

Last night
I lost my mind on the turnpike
Tell me how am I supposed to live right
When you unloop another belt at night

You're like my God
You might be maybe
I want you into my life
It's not that hard
Don't you blame me on the wrong sign, wrong time (Mmm)
Second time's a charm
Can you feel it baby?
Ten to two, drive me how you like
I know it's hard, but don't believe that we're just not right

(Just get in)
