

Western

Mk.gee

Have I told you yet that I'm so lonely I could die?
I wear it like a watch, can you tell me why I wear it all the time?

Sixteen again, no one ever answers my calls
Is this how it's gonna be for my whole life?

I wanna know are you- (Ooh)
Are we still going out?
I wanna know are you- (Ooh)
Are we still going out?

All this longing only hits when I'm stalling
At the red light on Western Avenue
Tell me, what's the time?
One more light and I might die

I'm scared of working too hard
I'm scared of working not enough
How soon is two weeks when it already has been two months?
Are you still having fun? (With me)

I wanna know are you- (Ooh)
Are we still going out?
I wanna know are you- (Ooh)
Are we still going out?
