

Beautiful Wreck

MØ

Oh, oh, oh oh, baby
You hold me in your arms like your red guitar, mmm
No, no one can blame me
For my wicked heart, it was in the cards

That I would be burning for you
It's like a forest fire
No way to stop it, now, we're in too deep
Lying here right next to you
I know love's a losing hand
But I want both of those hands on me

Oh, I don't have to sleep
I'm a beautiful wreck, baby
And I feel like I've been losing my mind
I don't know what you've done to me
Oh, I don't want to leave
'Cause I'm falling for you recklessly
And I feel like I've been losing my mind again
I'm your beautiful wreck, baby

Black, black black roses
Alive inside my hands and it's so bizarre
It's an old, old story
There's no harmony, no, without the harm

And baby I'm burning for you
It's like a forest fire
No way to stop it, now, we're in too deep
Lying here right next to you
I know love's a losing hand
But I want both of those hands on me

Oh, I don't have to sleep
I'm a beautiful wreck, baby
And I feel like I've been losing my mind
I don't know what you've done to me
Oh, I don't want to leave
'Cause I'm falling for you recklessly
And I feel like I've been losing my mind again
I'm your beautiful wreck, baby
I'm your beautiful wreck, baby

Follow me on this fire trail
I'm your Bonnie, you're my Clyde
Feeding on happy accidents, so we stay up all night
Follow me on this fire trail
I'm your Bonnie, you're my Clyde
So don't kiss me goodbye

Oh, I don't have to sleep
I'm a beautiful wreck, baby
And I feel like I've been losing my mind
I don't know what you've done to me
Oh, I don't want to leave
'Cause I'm falling for you recklessly
And I feel like I've been losing my mind again

I 'm your beautiful wreck, baby
