

Lost

Mob Rules

So strong - so wrong
So dark and cold inside

You cried but I will try
The day when all seems lost and gone

It's a world of sad temptation
A world of burning emptiness

My head - is so dead
I feel like someone washed my brain
The day we should have met the change we never had the day I felt that you've been gone
It's a world of sad temptation
And a world that's cold inside

Lost in silence - found my words on the run Cause I am lost in silence put my life into the hands of fate

so strong - so wrong
so dark and cold inside

the words we never read, the truth we never said the day when all is lost and gone

and a world that's cold inside
