

Shores Ahead

Mob Rules

Follow the path right behind you
Fear by your side
Running in circles
Nowhere to hide
A hunter's prey in sight

Monolith anchored in hatred
It's rolling apart
Lost its foundation
Return to the start
And shelter your cold heart

Shores ahead, across the sea
Lived my life beneath the waves
Now I'm running free

All my life felt you behind me
Fear by my side
Living in circles
Nowhere to hide
The table's turned tonight

A puppet depends on its master
The strings used to tame
Cut down eternal, they're falling apart
So shelter your cold heart

Shores ahead, across the sea
Lived my life beneath the waves
I finally found my way out to be free

Shores ahead, across the sea
Lived my life beneath the waves
Now I'm running free!
Shores ahead, across the sea
Now live my life beneath the stars
I promise that's the last time we will meet

Now go to hell!
