

Way Back Home

Mob Rules

We have travelled so far just to find a new way
We have searched for a destiny outside this realm
Led by a soothing temptation infusing our souls
We return the same, but somehow reborn

Turn the tide! Blaze the trail and be free
Forge the right destiny: our way back home
Fight night and day to redeem
'Cause tonight we will meet, on our way back home

Is the sun the same when it reignites after dawn?
Turning infinitely round, or endlessly reborn?
It is this light that has led us through anger and pain
We have prevailed and returned as different men
