

Hard Luck

Mobile

I'll take the righteous path
Right through the quarantine
They say you'll never live
Well passed your teens
With an attitude like that
And you take it so well
You're a victim of love
Love and hate come in pairs
Everything is yin yang

Never failing
Always going
Never failing
Never boring

We're riskin' it all for the diamond we held
Quarantine alone in my cell
Alone in my cell

We'll make each other laugh
We'll make each other mean
No one we'll get to you
I like what I've seen
And the attitude you lack
And you take it so well
You're a victim of love
Love and hate come in pairs
Everything is yin yang

Never failing
Always going
Never failing
Never boring
Everything is alright baby
Give it to me one more time
Yeah yeah yeah
Everything is alright baby
You could be my holy roller
There is no time
No story to tell
Quarantine
Alone in my cell

Invade, push back
We're going through the motions
You break my back
I'm holding up a notion
I'm vain, you crack
You've got some other notion
I take, I lack a second hand emotion
No sympathy I must have you

Never failing
Always going
Never boring

Give it to me one more time
You could be my holy roller
There is no time
No story to tell
Quarantine
Alone in my cell
