

Just Like Gene Autry; A Foxtrot

Moby Grape

And now, emanating from the Secaucus Lounge of the Fabulous Fandango Hotel in Weehawken, New Jersey -
We proudly present the celestial melodies of Lou Waxman
And his Orchestra, who ask the age old musical question...

I would love to love you like I love to do, I'm told I can do n othing, it's true
You can only be me to me what I used to be Since I've been me lately I find you hard to see
You're like heaven to me, drivin' me mad only I know how I care
With no one to look up to when with you I hook up to
By being without you I am (play it, Lou)

Living with you really is living life so freely
And by being without you, I am, yes, I am
By being without you, I am
