

Dark Star

Moby

"I tried so hard", I said
"the life I saw, so wrongly led"
The two paths in this dimming place
The light so faint I can't see your face

So turn on the light so I can see
Turn off the hope you had for me
Turn on the voice that cries again
Turn on the lights, turn on the rain [x2]

Why sell what's given free?
The new looks old when one is three
Brighter than the sun
Brighter than the moon
Brighter than a darkstar high at noon

So turn on the light so I can see
Turn off the hope you had for me
Turn on the voice that cries again
Turn on the lights, turn on the rain [x4]
