

feelings come undone

Moby

These days I seem to know
All I've seen is before
If I fail will I rise?
All my feelings they come undone

If I sail into these worlds
And I lose my only home
And I see the only one
All my feelings they come undone

All my feelings they come undone

A simple way to understand
It's an empty silent plan
If I fall, will I rise?
All my feelings they come undone

I've reflected all the light
I became the endless night
Now I stand upon the sun
All my feelings they come undone

All my feelings they come undone
All my feelings they come undone
All my feelings they come undone
All my feelings they come undone
All my feelings they come undone
