

In This Cold Place

Moby

In this cold place
Who will save me?
Who will take
The place of God tonight?
Oh, did I believe
Oh, really believe that
I could see light
That's hopeless and clearer
Than dawn

I got no life
I got no hope
I got no will
I got nowhere to go
I lost my soul
I cut my skin
I'm so ashamed
At how it all began

I looked so hard
For a savior
But then
There's nothing left to save
I would waste their time
I know I've wasted mine
'Cause tonight
I'm hopeless
And clearer than dawn

I got no life
I got no hope
I got no will
I got nowhere to go
I lost my soul
I cut my skin
I see my life
At how it all begins
I got no life
I got no hope
You wanted more
I got no more to know
I couldn't speak
I couldn't stand
I'm so ashamed
At how it all began

But I am tired
I'm feeling like my skin just holds me wrong
And I'm tired
I'm tired of all I've done
And I'm tired of this prison without walls
And I'm tired
Of feeling alone and nothing more
And I'm tired of feeling like my skin just holds me wrong
And I'm tired
I'm tired of all I've done
And I'm tired of feeling like it's all going wrong
