

Little Failure

Moby

See, Donald Trump is supposedly a great business man, but what a lot of people don't know is that he inherited six hundred million dollars from his father. And also, that at least half of his businesses have ended in bankruptcy so, Donald Trump is not a great business man, he's just a little failure

It's also worth remembering that Donald Trump has called Mexicans rapists, has called women pigs, so simply he's a racist and he's a misogynist and even more simply, Donald Trump is just a little failure

It's also surprising that anyone in the military would vote for trump. Donald Trump has insulted veterans, the families of veterans, generals, and has also insulted decorated war heroes Donald Trump is not a strong leader, he's just a little failure

So to recap, Donald Trump is a racist, Donald Trump is a misogynist, Donald Trump has insulted soldiers, families of fallen soldiers, Donald Trump inherited six hundred million dollars from his father, and most of Donald Trump's businesses have failed Donald Trump is simple a little failure
