

Dream

Mocca

In the middle of the night
A dream wakes me up
It is not very good dream
Maybe it's my nightmare

When I started my day
It's still stuck on my mind
And that thing ruined my day
Made my head spin around

But why should I believe my dream will come true
And I don't have any reason to believe that all of my dreams will come true

My dream says that you'll leave
Leave me here on my own
Leave me to breakdown and cry
There's nothing left for me

Maybe I should not trust
Maybe I should not ask
Or did I push you too hard
So you leave me for good
