

Promises

Mocca

Pararapaparapapa...

I promise you that I will stay true
will you promise not to change a thing cause sometimes you shout me out of the blue and what ever tomorrow will bring

I promise to change the things and the old thought hold my hand and let's save a new dawn

Pararapaparapapa...

I promise you that I will stay true
cause sometimes you shout me out of the blue
and what ever tomorrow will bring
Will you promise me that you'll always be mine
I promise you that I will always be around

Will you promise me that you'll always be mine
I promise you that I will always be around

I promise you that I will stay true
cause sometimes you shout me out of the blue and what ever tomorrow will brings
I promise to change the things and the old thought
hold my hand and let's save a new dawn
Will you promise me that you'll always be mine
I promise you that I will always be around
