

You're the Man

Mocca

I'm a simple girl who likes to cook and read good books
I'm a simple girl who loves my cat and wears a hat
I'm a simple girl who loves you more than who you are
I'm a simple girl who loves the man
before my eyes

You're the man (You're the man)
I wanna be around
You're the man (You're the man)
That will always be mine
You're the man (You're the man)
That'll always be around
You're the man (You're the man)
That will always be mine

I'm a simple girl Who loves you more
than who you are
I'm a simple girl who loves the man
before my eyes

You're the man (You're the man)
I wanna be around
You're the man (You're the man)
That will always be mine
You're the man (You're the man)
That'll always be around
You're the man (You're the man)
That will always be mine

I've been looking for so long for someone to grow old with who will always stay beside me
I've been looking for so long
for someone to grow old with but now I have you by my side

You're the man (You're the man)
I wanna be around
You're the man (You're the man)
That will always be mine
You're the man (You're the man)
That'll always be around
You're the man (You're the man)
That will always be mine
