Amen

Mod Sun

I don't wanna live my life for
Someone else, I've got so much to give, man
Can I get some help
Amen, ay, I don't wanna live
I don't wanna live like them
No, ay
I don't wanna live, I don't wanna live like them, no

I don't wanna live my life for someone else
I've got so much to give, can I get some help
Amen, ay I don't wanna live, I don't wanna live like them
No, ay
I don't wanna live, I don't wanna live like them

You are good enough, just the way you are (just the way you are)
And the world don't seem so fucked
When I'm riding in your car (riding in your car)
I don't wanna hear the same sad songs on the radio all day long
I need a change of perspective
My mind's so far gone (minds so far gone)

Tell me what I gotta do to make it through
Another day with a smile on my face, and I'll do it
Tell me what it takes to get over fake
Words to face every day, I don't know how to do it

I don't wanna live my life for someone else
I've got so much to give can I get some help
Amen
Ay, I don't wanna live, I don't wanna live like them
I don't wanna live my life for someone else
I've got so much to give can I get some help
Amen
Ay, I don't wanna live, I don't wanna live like them

I know I'm not the only one who wanna hear some real people say some Real shit bout their real life
Real world, real talk really feel emotions
I know I'm not the only one who wanna hear somebody say something
That they wish that they woulda said
Oh my God I think that's what I just did

I'm going through all the motions that life hands you
They gave me a lemon I made lemonade
I remember being broke but bitch I will not break
There's something so sweet about walking to your own beat
About standing on your own feet
More truth than poetry

I don't wanna live my life for someone else
I've got so much to give can I get some help
Amen
Ay, I don't wanna live, I don't wanna live like them
