

Perfectly Imperfect

Mod Sun

I could never write like Bob Dylan
Never be as cool as Cobain
I'm a hero and a villain
Different but the same
Life and death is appealing
So proud and full of shame
On the floor looking at the ceiling
I'm a loser with fame

I'm perfectly imperfect
I'm perfectly imperfect
I can't be everything they want me to be
Every mistake is what makes me, me
I'm perfectly imperfect

I'll never be as big as the Beatles
I could never sing like Adele
All these tattoos but hate needles
I'm healthy but I'm not well

I'm perfectly imperfect
I'm perfectly imperfect
I can't be everything they want me to be
Every mistake is what makes me, me
I'm perfectly imperfect

I'll never be like them, but I love what I am
I'll never be like them, but I love what I am
I'll never be like them, but I love what I am
I'll never be like them, but I love what I am

I'm perfectly imperfect
I'm perfectly imperfect
I can't be everything they want me to be
Every mistake is what makes me, me
I'm perfectly imperfect
