

Prayer

Mod Sun

And you being too reckless
With all of those words that you throw around
You never learn your lesson
You keep falling further down
And you're gonna block your blessings
You're living way too messy
You forgot to take the time to be grateful. Trust and believe and be faithful

Pray on it, pray on it...
I found a better path I need to stay on it
Pray on it, pray on it...
I was killing myself let's be honest
Tell me how to feel
Remind me that it's real
Cause I can't really deal...

I was living reckless
Designer clothes with a snotty nose
Doing drugs for breakfast
All of the white lines on the road
I was drowning for so long
I was alone feeling so numb
I forgot to take the time to be grateful
Have trust and believe and be faithful...

Pray on it, pray on it...
I found a better path I need to stay on it
Pray on it, pray on it...
I was killing myself let's be honest
Tell me how to feel
Remind me that it's real
Cause I can't really deal...
It's no longer "who I am" but "who will I become"
I gotta grow up because I didn't die young
I finally stopped choking every breath I take Let my best advice come from my worst mistake
I've accepted that I'm not like the masses
I'm meditating in a castle out in Calabasas
Every action has a reaction
What did you think would happen?
Say a prayer for me
And I'll say a prayer for you

Say a prayer for me
And I'll say a prayer for you
