R-E-V-E-N-G-E so sweet
R-E-V-E-N-G-E

This is for all the secrets you tell, all those rumors you start
Every promise you break, you know it broke my heart
So, please, go and tell another pretty little lie (Please)
Tell me how you sleep at night (Tell me, tell me, hey)
With all the secrets you tell, all those rumors you start

Three cheers for me, I forgot every memory
And I bet you're still remembering every little thing

You make me feel so sick, sick to my stomach
I hope you feel like shit
And God do I love it, I love it
And I know, I know it hurts you like hell
'Cause you know, you know I'm doin' so well
You feel like shit
And God do I love it, I love it

R-E-V-E-N-G-E so sweet
R-E-V-E-N-G-E

All those names that you drop (Yeah)
All that drama you start (God damn)
Every mess that you make (Woah)
It's such a work of art
So, please, go and tell another pretty little lie (Please)
Tell me did you sleep last night? (Tell me, tell me, hey)
With all those names that you drop, all that drama you start

Three cheers for me, I forgot every memory
And I bet you're still remembering every little thing

You make me feel so sick (So sick), sick to my stomach (Stomach)
I hope you feel like shit (Like shit)
And God do I love it, I love it
And I know, I know it hurts you like hell
'Cause you know, you know I'm doin' so well
You feel like shit (Like shit)
And God do I love it, I love it
