

Runaway

Mod Sun

When everything seems lonely and I'm feelin out of place
I go to my favorite restaurant and let a newspaper hide my face
And I runaway
Yeah, I runaway
I order myself a coffee even though I hate the taste
So I pour some whiskey in it and get drunk in a public place
And I runaway
Yeah, I runaway
As the morning becomes afternoon and the drugs start to fade
Instead of be a human and face all the choices that I made
I'd rather runaway
Yeah, runaway

Yeah I'm gettin older I should probably start thinking bout my health
Try to talk to the man in the mirror but he's never any help
He just runs away
I'm starting to lose it
Starting to lose it
Starting to lose myself
Starting to lose it
Starting to lose it
Starting to lose myself

When everyone is soft asleep I'm alone with my best friends
Cuz all I ever needed was the voice inside my head
But I runaway
Ooh, I runaway
One day I'll be gone and all you'll have is the words I said
That's why I stay awake at night everytime I look at my bed
I just runaway
Yeah
I runaway

Yeah I'm gettin older I should probably start thinking bout my health
Try to talk to the man in the mirror but he's never any help
He just runs away
I'm starting to lose it
Starting to lose it
Starting to lose myself
Starting to lose it
Starting to lose it
Starting to lose myself

Yeah I'm gettin older I should probably start thinking bout my health
Try to talk to the man in the mirror but he's never any help
He just runs away
I'm starting to lose it
Starting to lose it
Starting to lose myself
Starting to lose it
Starting to lose it
Starting to love myself
Starting to lose it
But I'm starting to love myself
Starting to lose it
Starting to love myself
Starting to lose it

I'm starting to love myself
