

Shoulder

Mod Sun

So fall into my arms, tell me all your problems
We'll spend the whole afternoon tryna solve 'em
You just need someone to listen, stay a little longer
Just let me shoulder be what your tears fall on

We all make mistakes but
They don't define you, yeah
There's ways to find
That peace inside you
Let your past stay behind you
I'll stand beside you

Past stay behind you
I'll stand right beside you
Stand right beside you
Stand right beside you
Let your past stay behind you
I'll stand beside you
Stand right beside you
Stand right beside you

And if you're having more fun with or without me
Truly I wanna know
And if the sand is runnin' low in our hourglass
Then I'm down to go
I'm not afraid of the future, really am not
But the idea of you not in it is a scary thought
But we all grow through, what we go through
And I'm just happy that I know you, oh

Just tell me what's on your mind
I won't look at you different, there's no wrong or right
Tell me what's on your mind
'Cause when I look at you I wanna close my eyes

So fall into my arms, tell me all your problems
We'll spend the whole afternoon tryna solve 'em
You just need someone to listen, stay a little longer
Just let me shoulder be what your tears fall on

We all make mistakes but
They don't define you, yeah
There's ways to find
That peace inside you
Let your past stay behind you
I'll stand beside you

Past stay behind you
I'll stand right beside you
Stand right beside you
Stand right beside you
Let your past stay behind you
I'll stand beside you
Stand right beside you
Stand right beside you

There's nothing louder than silence

And I can't read your mind
Don't believe in psychics or science
But I know it gets better with time
So I cross my fingers and hope
We're lookin' at the same sky tonight
And if you give me that call
You know I'm always down to make the drive
But once I arrive

You've gotta tell me what's on your mind
I won't look at you different, there's no wrong or right
Tell me what's on your mind
'Cause when I look at you I wanna close my eyes

So fall into my arms, tell me all your problems
We'll spend the whole afternoon tryna solve 'em
You just need someone to listen, stay a little longer
Just let me shoulder be what your tears fall on

We all make mistakes but
They don't define you, yeah
There's ways to find
That peace inside you
Let your past stay behind you
I'll stand beside you

Past stay behind you
I'll stand right beside you
Stand right beside you
Stand right beside you
Let your past stay behind you
I'll stand beside you
Stand right beside you
Stand right beside you

Let your past stay behind you
I'll stand beside you
Stand right beside you
Stand right beside you
Let your past stay behind you
I'll stand beside you
Stand right beside you
Stand right beside you

Let your past stay behind you
I'll stand beside you
Stand right beside you
Stand right beside you
Let your past stay behind you
I'll stand beside you
Stand right beside you
Stand right beside you
