

Better Side Of Me

Modern Day Zero

The sooner that I realize
These scars were never there
I could place the blame on you
And now that I'm alone
The silence makes me feel
You could have your way with me
And you know
You cried that I wasn't there
So tell me what you want me
Even though I know I need to Get away
I wanna make you see

The better side of me
You turn away and never listen
Do you see
The better side of me
When all these words go right through you

How could I have known
By looking in your eyes
That there was something there for me
You would love to hide
Now everything is gone
So tell me what went wrong
I guess that we will never know

Do you see the better side of me

Now I can place the blame on you
