

I Don't Know the Answer

Modern English

It came as no surprise when I talked to you alone
Comfort was all you needed before the night was gone
I told you once then told you twice I tell you once again
The answer like the age old question is blowing in the wind

I don't know the answer
Can I face the world without you coming back?
Will I always be alone?
I don't know the answer

Do you want more lines from me to hide you from the truth
Or should I eat my words and spit them loosely on the ground
You told me once then told me twice now tell me once again
There are more questions than answers all blowing in the wind

I don't know the answer
Can I face the world without you coming back?
Will I always be alone?
I don't know the answer

Here's a question
Needs an answer
Give an answer if you can

I don't know the answer
Can I face the world without you coming back?
Will I always be alone?
I don't know the answer [repeat]

Love Breaks Down

Two sides fought for God above
More hate rose to the sea of love
A woman taught of a decent life
A million stars on a heat filled night
The nuclear threat hangs on our head
Two world wars and untold dead

Oh, oh,
Love breaks down
Love breaks down [x4]

More lightening and the storm is on us
It seems a river should shed a tear
There's more talking and the waiting's over
Can you feel it, hate pours on me

Oh, oh,
Love breaks down
Love breaks down [x6]

Love breaks down,
Love breaks down
Love breaks down, love breaks down
Love breaks down
Can you feel it, can you feel it
Love breaks down,

Love, love [fade]
