

Yesterday's Trash

Modern Life Is War

Another new beginning: down the fucking drain. Screaming "never again"
As we watch it wash away. God Damn. Disappointment sure does have a Way of adding up. But it's all a matter of perspective so we'd better Start looking up. Don't give up... cause someone said these are our Glory days. So let's do our best to beat the misery that comes with Being young and fucked up. Time to rise up. Before yesterday's trash Becomes tomorrow's hard luck.
