

Be Brave

Modest Mouse

From day to day
From day to day
To today

From day to day
From day to day
To today

We care, we care
We carry our own weight

From day to day
From day go back to today

Shocked, sitting in ship's clothing
Pumping with our hips
Filling every single corner with our soft little kids
(Copies of ourselves)

Carried til' gone
So carried away
I am not afraid

The devil is scary for me, to stain
From day to day
From day to day
To today

Be brave, be brave, be brave, be brave
Be brave

Be brave, be brave, be brave, be brave
Be brave

At the part for now
It's all coming 'round
Every hate abounds
At the part for now

Another monster hiding inside of a cave
We go from day to day in our heaven
In the most appropriate ways
Around the corner
Misty-eyed starving to get on our ship

We won't fail, we won't fail, we won't fail
We just can't fail

Well the ocean doesn't care
And we hardly even mattered
We're just a bit more pissed to push out eggs

Who'll burn as our bodies float down
Onto all their rocky little bits
Part of mountains of dirt and silt and still
The world just don't give a shit

We fight it, we fight it, we fight it, today
We fight it, we fight it, we fight it, today
We fight it, we fight it, we fight it, today

At the part for now
It's all coming 'round
Every hate abounds
At the part for now