

Pour another drink for me
Step outside and tell the truth
Is it me or you? 'Cause I'm running after—
Make me feel better, baby
Like you used to do
Not like all the others

You make me feel different, different, different
And it's so dark from [?] light, but tonight, it feels
Different, different, different
And it's so dark from [?] light, but tonight, it feels

And it's so dark from [?] light, but tonight, it feels
And it's so dark from [?] light, but tonight, it feels
And it's so dark from [?] light, but tonight, it feels
And it's so dark from [?] light, but tonight, it feels
