

Programmable Choice

Modwheelmood

Loneliness where I come from
No regrets, I'm not ready
God, I seen the hospital
And everything is lost

Rewind
I hope you've enjoyed
Don't spend too much time
Remembering all the noise
That's in your mind
A voice reminding you life
Is a programmable choice
Rewind
I hope you've enjoyed

Here I am
Here I start from scratch again
I am, I've been
Looking for another reason
(Well, give me just another minute)
To understand where I come from Comprehend I'm not ready
Well God, I seen the hospital
And everything is lost

Rewind
I hope you've enjoyed
Don't spend too much time
Remembering all the noise
That's in your mind
A voice reminding you life
Is a programmable choice
Rewind
I hope you've enjoyed

Well God, I seen the hospital
And everything is lost

Well guess what I found out
I'm invincible
I'm not afraid of what it takes
To slowly slip into myself
And though it's hard to rearrange
I feel I'll make it in the end
If I get hold of the technique
I need reset to head

Rewind
I hope you've enjoyed
Don't spend too much time
Remembering all the noise
That's in your mind
